Give without charge!

Jesus looked out on a different kind of world in his day. It may have lacked smartphones, social media, and twenty-four-hour news cycles, but the human condition has not changed nearly as much as we sometimes imagine. People still struggle with fear, uncertainty, loneliness, and the search for meaning. The challenges may look different, but the deep needs of the human heart remain the same. It is easy to picture Jesus standing on a hillside looking over a crowd of ordinary people, but it is equally possible to imagine Him standing in a modern city centre, an airport terminal, a shopping mall, or scrolling through a social media feed.

What would He see? He would see people connected digitally yet isolated emotionally. He would see rising levels of anxiety and depression. He would see families under financial pressure, young people struggling with identity and purpose, and older generations wondering where stability has gone. He would see a world overflowing with information but often lacking wisdom.

Most importantly, he would respond in the same way he did back then - with compassion. Jesus does not look at struggling people and become frustrated. He does not dismiss them as weak or blame them for their circumstances. Instead, His heart is moved. His compassion is active, practical, and transformative.

Jesus sends the disciples out with a clear message: "The kingdom of heaven is near at hand." This was not simply an announcement about a future reality. It was a declaration that God was actively at work in the present. The final instruction in this passage may be the most challenging of all: "you have received without charge, give without charge."

Modern culture often encourages a transactional mindset. We are taught to ask, "What will I get out of this?" Jesus offers a radically different perspective. Everything the disciples have received - grace, forgiveness, purpose, hope - has been given as a gift. Therefore, they are to become generous people who give freely to others.

National Pilgrimage for Life

The National Pilgrimage for Life will be celebrated on Saturday 20th June in Knock Shrine. Mass will be celebrated at 3.00pm in the Basilica, during which the Anointing of the Sick will take place. We invite you to join us in Knock to celebrate the gift of life and to pray for the protection of all human life.

Pope Leo posed a number of questions for reflection while visiting Spain;

"What legacy are we leaving for the future and, by extension, what kind of community are we building? Who are the ones being excluded despite their virtues and abilities?" Our future—as a common family—is dependent on whether humanity's authentic greatness comes to the surface. To achieve this, Pope Leo challenged everyone to "be new protagonists for weaving new networks that harmonise all areas of life."

An Exam Prayer

God stay close to me today, Guide my study and light my way.
Ease my nerves and comfort me with peace and love so tenderly.
May I remember the things I need.

May I strive to give my best and do myself justice in each test.

During the moments I may feel stressed I'll try to remember the ways I am blessed; and if there are times that I feel at sea, help me to trust that you're here with me. Amen

Today's Scripture Readings

Entrance Antiphon

O Lord, hear my voice, for I have called to you; be my help.

Do not abandon or forsake me,
O God, my Saviour.

PENITENTIAL RITE

P. Have mercy on us, O Lord
C. For we have sinned against you.

P. Show us, O Lord, your mercy.
C. And grant us your salvation.

P. May almighty God have mercy on us, forgive us our sins, and bring us to everlasting life.
C. Amen.

GLORIA

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you,
we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, God, almighty Father.
Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
you take away the sins of the world,
have mercy on us;
you take away the sins of the world,
receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father,
have mercy on us.
For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father.
Amen.

A reading from the book of Exodus Ex 19:2-6

From Rephidim the Israelites set out again;
and when they reached the wilderness of Sinai, there in the wilderness they pitched their camp; there facing the mountain Israel pitched camp.

Moses then went up to God, and the Lord called to him from the mountain, saying, Say this to the House of Jacob, declare this to the people of Israel, You yourselves have seen what I did with the Egyptians, how I carried you on eagles wings and brought you to myself. From this you know that now, if you obey my voice and hold fast to my covenant, you of all the nations shall be my very own for all the earth is mine. I will count you a kingdom of priests, a consecrated nation.

The word of the Lord

Responsorial Psalm

Response: .

We are his people: the sheep of his flock

Cry out with joy to the Lord, all the earth.
Serve the Lord with gladness.
Come before him, singing for joy. R.

Know that he, the Lord, is God.
God made us, we belong to him,
we are his people, the sheep of his flock. R.

Indeed, how good is the Lord, eternal his merciful love.
God is faithful from age to age. R.

A reading from the letter of St. Paul to the Romans. Rom 5:6-11

We were still helpless when at his appointed moment Christ died for sinful people. It is not easy to die even for a good person - though of course for someone really worthy, a person might be prepared to die - but what proves that God loves us is that Christ died for us while we were still sinners. Having died to make us righteous, is it likely that he would now fail to save us from God's anger? When we were reconciled to God by the death of his Son, we were still enemies; now that we have been reconciled, surely we may count on being saved by the life of his Son? Not merely because we have been reconciled but because we are filled with joyful trust in God, through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have already gained our reconciliation.

The word of the Lord

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia!

The sheep that belong to me listen to my voice, says the Lord,
I know them and they follow me.
Alleluia!

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew.

Mat 9:36 - 10:8

When Jesus saw the crowds he felt sorry for them because they were harassed and dejected, like sheep without a shepherd.
Then he said to his disciples, 'The harvest is rich but the labourers are few, so ask the Lord of the harvest to send labourers to his harvest.'

He summoned his twelve disciples, and gave them authority over unclean spirits with power to cast them out and to cure all kinds of diseases and sickness.

These are the names of the twelve apostles: first, Simon who is called Peter, and his brother Andrew; James the son of Zebedee, and his brother John; Philip and Bartholomew; Thomas, and Matthew the tax collector; James the son of Alphaeus, and Thaddaeus; Simon the Zealot and Judas Iscariot, the one who was to betray him. These twelve Jesus sent out, instructing them as follows:

'Do not turn your steps to pagan territory, and do not enter any Samaritan town; go rather to the lost sheep of the House of Israel. And as you go, proclaim that the kingdom of heaven is close at hand. Cure the sick, raise the dead, cleanse the lepers, cast out devils. You received without charge, give without charge.'

PROFESSION OF FAITH

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day In accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Communion Antiphon

There is only one thing I ask of the Lord, only this do I seek:
to live in the house of the Lord all the days of my life.
